ROAR T- SHIRTS SHOW OUR TIGER SPIRIT!

Last Friday all students, faculty and staff wore our Anniston ROAR t-shirts. This show of unity created an exciting atmosphere that carried on to a ROAR Pep Rally where we saw hundreds of Responsible Students with Outstanding Attitudes who were Ready for Anything. You as a parent, guardian, or Anniston supporter can ROAR with us by purchasing your own T-shirt. An order form will be on the back of this edition of Paw Prints.

PTA Meets This Week!

There will be a general PTA membership meeting this Thursday, September 24, 2009 at 5:15 in the library. All members and prospective members are invited to attend.

FROM THE LIBRARIAN

The date for the READING FAIR has been set for November 18, 2009. The 2010 Reading Fair Guidelines and details will be sent home with your child. Look for these in the next couple of weeks.

A big congratulation goes out to Tre Lucas this week for answering TWO of our "Fall into Nutrition" fruit trivia questions. He got to check out a Playaway and keep it over night. Congrats, Tre.

As always, please, help your children remember to return their library books each week. 😊

ANNISTON STUDENTS ARE GOING FOR THE GOLD!

The students in grades 3, 4, and 5 have been given a special challenge. They have been asked to set goals of raising at least two of their lowest grades on progress reports before the first nine weeks end. For those who have made this pledge their names are listed on the "Going for the Gold" banner outside the cafeteria. If they achieve their goal they will be invited to a Gold Medal Celebration the second nine weeks. Parents of students in these grades, feel free to ask your child if they set these goals and are "Going for the Gold" this nine weeks.
