Wax Museum, Seuss Parade Attract Crowds

On February 26th, the second grade team held the ever-popular “Wax Museum of Famous Americans” in the MPB (gym). Students dressed as “wax figures” of historical Americans, and “came to life” when a button on the hand was pushed, enabling the figure to give a full presentation of himself/herself. At left, Kinchasa Anderson (as Rosa Parks) poses for the camera. At right, kindergartener Joseph Hester (as “The Cat in the Hat”) leads the annual Dr. Seuss parade, in honor of the famous author’s birthday, which was celebrated at BVE this past Thursday (March 4th). A great time was had by all!

2009—2010 BVE Parent of the Year: Amy Rollins

Congratulations to Mrs. Amy Rollins, BVE’s “Parent of the Year” for 2009-2010! Mrs. Rollins has volunteered countless hours at school this year directly related to improving student achievement, in several areas. She is a regular tutor in the B.O.O.S.T. lab, assisting various students daily in reading and math lessons. She also serves as a regular classroom tutor and mentor, as well as assisting with test proctoring, library work, and several other areas needing help throughout the school. Mrs. Rollins is married to Chuck Rollins, and is the mother of Hutson, 7, a first grade student at BVE, and Brittany, 19, a freshman at Oklahoma University. Thank you, Mrs. Rollins!

“Book Fair Diner” Begins Next Week!

IT’S BOOK FAIR TIME AGAIN!

Beginning next Friday, join us in the library for the “Book Fair Diner,” which will run from March 18 through March 24 (Thursday—Wednesday). Hours will run from 7:00-11:00, and 11:30-3:00. Family night is Tuesday, March 23, from 3:30 p.m. until 7:30 p.m. Prizes will be available during this time, and you may shop before, during, and after the 3rd grade musical taking place the same night in the MPB (gym). You may also purchase a book or gift certificate for your child’s teacher to expand the teacher’s library! Please call media specialist, Sandra Marshall, at 865-4421 to help run the fair. We look forward to seeing you!

NOTE: Credit cards and checks (payable to BVE) will be accepted.
